

Do not weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law by exempting Indiana consumers with established business relationships. This law is specifically designed to protect consumers from incessant telemarketers impacting the privacy of American citizens - the very reason the Consumer Bankers Association wants to modify the Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law.